

Samurdhi Branch

Samurdi programmed can be introduced as a development programmed which centered the low income earning and low privileged family groups and community and act to eliminate their poverty and create a reasonable society to confirm their rights.

Promoting of livelihood economic development activities, food security confirming for the family, guiding the community for saving and maintaining micro financial bank system to supply people micro financial loan facilities to uplift their livelihood development, organizing people for a national level activities by promoting, developing physical and social infra structural facilities of people, implementing diriyapiyasa housing programmed centering the family, implementing social security programmes, implementing scholarship programs for children of low income families, and organizing kekulu children societies and competitions to improve their talents, developing attitudes by implementing social development programmes, implementing samurdi subsidiary programmed for low income families and participating to implement divineguma programmed for organizing people for a national development activity likewise implement various programmed to develop from the person to family society and village by the samurdi programmed.

Implementing Programmed

- Bank programmed
 - Savings activity - accepting savings, members, on members, groups, diriya matha, lama sisuraka, kekulu, compulsory.
 - Loan programmed - self-employment loans, housing loans, consumer loans, distress, Mihijaya, Kirula, Divineguma, Isura.
- Social development programmed
 - Diriya Piyasa housing programmed
 - Anti-narcotic programmed
 - Children societies programmed.
- Social security programmed.
- Livelihood development programmed.
- Divineguma home garden programmed.
- Samurdi subsidiary programmed.

Samurdi programmed implemented in 557 gramani ladari divisions in Colombo district by 42 bank societies employed 69 samurdi managers and 868 samurdi development officers for this purpose.

Divineguma Live hood Development Programmed